MONDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 8

LOCAL MATTERS.

For the Middle Atlantic States fair weather, with mild winds, slight fall of temperature, higher barometer. To-morrow the same conditions will prevail.

"SOCIETY ITEMS."—From the Washington Sunday papers we take the following: Ex Mayor Courtland Smith, of Alexandria, Virginia, finds Washington more congenial than New York, and hereafter he will reside here.

Mrs. Greene, widow of the late James Greene, of Culpeper, has bought a house, corner of Fourteenth and N, and will reside there for the winter.

The marriage of Miss Columbia Smith, of King George, to Mr. Buckley, of Washington, formerly of Jefferson county, W. Va., will take place on the 23d of this month.

Mrs. K. W. Montgomery has issued invitations for the wedding reception of her daughter, Virginia Letta Montgomery, and Mr. Linden Kent, which will be on Wednesday next from 1:30 until 3 o'clock, at her residence, No. 127 Lexington avenue, New York. Miss Montgomery, who is a sister of Mr. Randall Gibson, of Louisiana, has been a distinguished belle. Mr. and Mrs. Kent, will occupy the residence he has prepared near Dupont Circle.

POLICE REPORT.—Saturday night was cloudy till about 12 o'clock, when it became clear. There were two prisoners and fourteen lodgers at the station house.

Last night was clear and cool, with two prisoners and four lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor since Saturday has disposed of the following cases:

Sylvester Smithers, arrested for stealing chickens, was sent to jail for 60 days.

Fanny Grandison and Lizzie Carter, arrested by Officers Nightingall and Bettis, for disorderly conduct, were sent to jail for 30 days.

Deaven Peyton, charged by Henry Blush with robbing him of $40, was discharged.

THE RAIN STORM which set in between six and seven o'clock Saturday continued unabated all day. Towards dark it grew exceedingly tempestuous, rain falling in torrents, rendering out-door operations uncomfortable and in some cases impossible. Those whose circumstances or neglect rendered marketing necessary at that time received the full benefit of the storm. About eight o'clock, however, the clouds broke and in a short time the stars made their appearance, since which time the heavens have remained clear and the temperature spring like. Yesterday was a beautiful day, and the churches were well filled at all the services.

THE FEAST of the "Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary," the Patronal Festival of the American Catholic Church, was celebrated at St. Mary's Church to-day. A very large number of persons received the holy communion. At 10 a. m. there was high mass, and at 7:30 this evening the exercises of the novena, or nine days' prayer, which has been going on since the 30th ultimo in honor of the ter-centenary of the establishment of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin, December 6th, 1854, will take place. Rev. Father Connolly, of Georgetown College, will preach.

THE STRAMER MOSELEY.—The steamer Jane Moseley, running from Norfolk to Cape Charles City, connecting with the Northeastern Shore route, was blown on Hampton bar in the gale Saturday night, while waiting for a Baltimore steamer to leave the wharf, and she was at first entertained that she might be lost. A telegram received from Fort Monroe yesterday says the Moseley was detained only a few moments, and without the slightest accident arrived at Cape Charles City, the terminus of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad in good time.

MR. F. D. RICHARDSON, the efficient Clerk of the Court of Fairfax, who is as accurate with his gun as with his pen, while out hunting this morning, bagged a splendid wild turkey, which, with characteristic generosity and a full appreciation of the services of the GAZETTE, he sent to its editor, who hereby returns his acknowledgments, and promises to duly appreciate the delicious bird as well as the compliment.

CORPORATION COURT.—The Corporation Court, Judge N. B. Meade presiding, commenced to-day. After passing on a number of bills and granting two liquor licenses, the court took a recess until 3:30 o'clock. This evening the will of Sarah McLean was admitted to probate, after which Court adjourned till Thursday morning next.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Dr. L. A. Bilsby and daughters, who have been visiting Mr. Alonzo Mills, have returned to their home in Portsmouth.

MR. J. W. Brown, who has been confined to his room for the past two weeks, suffering from a severe cold, is improving, and hopes in a few days to be about again.

SERVICES will be held every night this week in the Second Presbyterian Church, commencing at half past seven o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Dinwiddie, will preach to-night, and the services during the remainder of the week will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Petrey, of Charlottesville. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.—Bradford House.—E. R. Wright, Boyce, Va.; C. K. Nelson, R. Richem, Pa.; Chas. T. Hull, Athens, Pa.; Misses Murray, Beale and Russell, Washington; W. Cabell Brown, Virginia; H. Wooster, Baltimore; J. Connelly and wife, J. Gallacher, New York; S. W. Simpson, Warrenton Junction.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Four vessels loaded with oysters have arrived at the oyster dock.

Mrs. Wm. Cline, a well-known resident of Leesburg died there on Saturday last.

Mr. Ed. Burns, while at work at a planer at the shops of the V. M. Ry., Friday had one of his fingers cut off.

BAUM'S MAMMOTH ESTABLISHMENT.—All those going to Washington should not fail to visit Baum's Mammoth Establishment, especially now to see the grand display of goods, where almost everything can be found under one roof. All goods are marked in plain figures and strictly one price, and no one will molest you when going all through the building. Remember BAUM'S, 7th street, Washington.

VIRGINIA BONDS.

The following letter to Colonel Ruffin, the Second Auditor, from General Wickham, chairman of the Senate Committee of Finance, is his construction of the late law amending the Riddleberger law and in exposition of the policy of that amendment. The same construction has been given by counsel who has been consulted by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund.

RICHMOND, Va., December 4, 1884.
Colonel Frank G. Ruffin, Second Auditor of Virginia, Richmond:

Dear Sir,—You ask me in regard to the construction of the following clause in the act passed at the last General Assembly amending the Riddleberger bill:

"And provided further, after the passage of this act, the new bonds issued shall be issued with such coupons or interest only thereon as shall mature after actual date of exchange."

And you state to me that some persons differ as to the construction of it.

It seems to me that the meaning is as clear as language can make it.

No bond can be issued between this and the 31st day of December with any coupons upon it except those which mature on January 1, 1885, and after. No bond can be issued between January 1, 1885, and June 30, 1885, with any coupons attached except those that mature July 1, 1885, and after. And this provision relates to the interest and coupons which mature between January 1, 1883, and January 1, 1885, both inclusive, offered for funding, as well as to the bonds themselves with coupons anterior to January 1, 1883, when offered for funding.

Thus a bondholder, bringing in his bonds with coupons maturing prior to January 1, 1883, if consols, will receive the amount of bonds to which he is entitled under Clause A of the Riddleberger act.

So, with the 10 40 and other classes, he would receive the bonds and interest provided for in that act.

If, in addition, the man who brought the 10-40 bonds and coupons maturing anterior to July 1, 1883, brought also coupons maturing January, 1883, to January 1885, both inclusive, or for any portion of that time, he would receive bonds dollar for dollar for the last-named coupons.

If the person brought consols or the other classes of debt, he would receive, in addition to the bonds he was entitled to under their respective classes, as named in the lettered clauses of said act, for any interest or coupons which he might produce accruing between January, 1883, and January, 1885, or any part thereof, fifty cents in the dollar.

Any bondholder failing to fund his bonds prior to the 1st day of July, 1885, will forfeit the coupons which mature on the 1st day of July, 1885. If he still delays until the 1st day of January, 1886, he will forfeit the coupons of July, 1885, and January, 1886, and so on until he does fund.

An amendment was proposed by the House Committee of Finance, but was withdrawn simply as a means of facilitating business, in the last days of the session, the effect of which was to direct the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to cancel each month so many of the bonds held by them under their purchases, under the act of March 15, 1884, as would be equal to the amount of bonds issued in the same month for coupons or interest maturing 1st of January, 1883, to 1st of January, 1885, inclusive, the object being to prevent the increase of the amount of the debt as stated in the Riddleberger bill.

It was desirable that this amendment should have been adopted, so that the bill itself should have shown the financial policy in this respect of the General Assembly. As it is, it will be necessary at the next meeting of the General Assembly to pass a bill directing the cancelling of a sufficient number of the bonds held by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to offset any increase of the debt caused by the issuance of bonds for coupons and interest accruing January, 1883, to January, 1885, inclusive; and I have no doubt that it will be one of the first acts passed by the next General Assembly.

The funding of this class of coupons will relieve the Treasury of the necessity of keeping on hand a sum of money sufficient to pay two years' interest on the unfunded portion of the debt, which otherwise it would have been necessary to do. And this money thus released will enable the State to buy up an amount of new 3 per cent. bonds more than sufficient to offset this apparent increase of the debt, and leave it a considerable surplus of purchased bonds to be turned over to the Sinking Fund for cancellation. Yours truly,

WILLIAM C. WICKHAM,
late Chairman Senate Committee on Finance.

A CREAMERY.—Kingsley & Bro., of Iowa, have arranged for the establishment at Hamilton, Loudoun county, of a creamery for the manufacture almost exclusively of butter. The capacity for butter-making will be equal to the milk supply of 700 or 800 cows. The milk is to be delivered at the factory twice a day in summer and once a day in winter, at an average price during the year of about 8 1/2 cents.

The Mahdi.
CAIRO, Dec. 8.—It is reported at Dongola that the Mahdi had accepted the challenge to his prophetic powers proposed by Gen. Gordon. It is asserted that he tried to make his followers walk across the Nile, and thereby lost 3,000 men. According to other reports, however, the Mahdi remains at Margat and is making no attempt to intercept the convoys.

Arrested.
PETERSBURG, Va., Dec. 8.—John Rogers, colored, who stabbed and killed M. F. Peebles, at Margarettabad, Northampton county, N. C., a few days ago and afterwards made his escape, has been arrested and lodged in the county jail.

Standard Dollars.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 8.—The issue of standard silver dollars from the mints during the week ended December 6th, was $526,996. The issue for the corresponding period of last year was $521,495.

Pensions.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 8.—The payments from the Treasury so far this month on account of pensions amount to $3,300,000.

VIRGINIA NEWS.
The Virginia Insurance Company have reinsured their risks and determined to close business. They have been making no money of consequence for several years.

G. R. Hatcher, one of the oldest and most respected citizens in Upper Fauquier, died at his residence near Rectortown, Wednesday, November 26th, in the 75th year of his age.

WHAT A FRIEND OF BLAINE SAYS.—Col. H. C. Parsons, resident owner of the Natural Bridge property, in Rockbridge county, Va., and an intimate personal and political friend of the Hon. James G. Blaine, writes to the Richmond State: "I have no sympathy with the sentiment that would give the South a lesser place in the councils of the nation or the conduct of its affairs. Never did an army so honorably keep the terms of surrender as that at Appomattox."

"I am a twice wounded Union soldier, and a republican, and yet I see no peril to the republic in the fact that the men who for twenty years have loyally helped to pay the national debt and pensions are now given a day in which to prove their good faith and loyalty, and their right to stand and claim an equal share in the government of the Union."

THE PLAGUE.—A Louisville Courier Journal correspondent visiting the plague-stricken districts of Eastern Kentucky and Southwestern Virginia, telegraphs that a horrible state of affairs exists in Wise and Lee counties, Va. A number of instances are cited in which whole families perished. The disease is caused more deaths in Letcher county, Ky., and Wise county, Va., than in any other counties. In the latter county the deaths have been so numerous that it has been difficult to provide for the proper burial of the victims.

Information through a merchant of Wise county, Va., is that the plague is now on the decrease. Between 200 and 300 persons, from three to eighty years of age, have died. The plague is attributed to the drought and its effect upon the drinking water.

Mr. Oscar K. Harris died yesterday morning, in his 49th year, after a protracted illness, at his residence in Washington. For twenty years he was actively connected with many of the leading journals of the country, including the National Republican and Evening Star of Washington, the Baltimore Sun, Boston Journal and several of the New York papers. For the last three years he has occupied a leading position on the editorial staff of the Evening Critic.
